European Brewery Convention

EBC SYMPOSIUM

'Food Safety & Traceability'

Berlin (Germany), 2–4 May 2004

The European Brewery Convention (EBC) will hold a two-day Symposium on 'Food Safety & Traceability'. General Chairman of the Symposium is Dr. Frank Rath (VLB Berlin, Research Institute for Raw Materials). The Symposium will take place in Berlin, Germany, 2–4 May 2004.

Topics to be treated in approx. 20 oral presentations will include:

- Legal general conditions and requirements of the market
- Food safety and traceability – upstream
- Food safety and traceability – downstream
- Crisis management, including a case study

The Symposium will further include a technical visit to a brewery and/or a food or pharmaceutical company with an implemented 'traceability' solution.

Details in the programme will be available in the beginning of 2004. The Symposium language is English. Anyone wishing to participate in this Symposium – for which a registration fee will be charged – is invited to contact the:
