GCB and GCP Examination

General Certificate in Brewing

**&

General Certificate in Packaging

The General Certificate in Brewing and Packaging examination has been replaced by two new examinations:

- The General Certificate in Brewing (GCB)

Composed of one general paper and one paper chosen from:

- Brewing for Cask Beer
- Brewing for Chilled and Filtered Beer

- The General Certificate in Beer Packaging (GCP)

Composed of one general paper and one paper chosen from:

- Can
- Keg
- Non-returnable Bottles
- Returnable Bottles

Each qualification will be examined via two multiple-choice question papers. Both papers are one hour long and by January 2007 will be taken at a computer using the City & Guilds GOLLA system, on the same day. Both qualifications have been accredited by City & Guilds at NVQ level 2.
